Pediatric Documentation Challenge™

Participate in a special seminar on EHRs in the office practice

The AAP Council on Clinical Information Technology (COCIT) is pleased to present the Pediatric Documentation Challenge™. This is an opportunity for vendors of Electronic Health Record (EHR) solutions to demonstrate their software to pediatricians who are considering implementing EHRs in their practices. With incentive payments for meaningful use of health information technology will be available beginning January 2011, pediatricians are more interested than ever in adopting electronic health records.

Date/Location   AAP National Conference & Exhibition
Saturday, October 2, 2010
Moscone Convention Center, San Francisco, CA

Requirements   Vendors wishing to participate in the Pediatric Documentation Challenge must meet the following requirements:

- Vendors must be registered exhibitors at the AAP National Conference & Exhibition.
NOTE: Visit our web site at www.aapexperience.org for more information on exhibiting.
- Vendors must be committed to achieving certification of the EHR version being presented under the Temporary Certification Program to be established by the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology.
- A practicing pediatrician or midlevel child healthcare provider (eg, PNP, PA) who uses the software in clinical practice must conduct the demonstration.
- The presentation must follow the pediatric case study, which will be provided approximately 1 month prior to the event.
NOTE: The case will focus on the requirements of Meaningful Use, and will be designed to stretch the EHR's capacities.
- If the moderator determines that the company spokesperson is dominating the presentation, or that the presentation is significantly deviating from the case, the moderator may interrupt in order to correct this.
- Vendor representatives and presenters must be present approximately 30 minutes prior to the assigned presentation time.

How to Sign Up   To participate in this event, complete and return the Sign Up Sheet.

- The Sign-up Sheet can be found at http://www.aapcocit.org/cocit_tasks.php?task=education.
- Submit the Sign-up Sheet to Beki Marshall at bmarshall@aap.org.
